What happens after Princethorpe: a parents guide

Jacqui Quinney

Head of Careers & UCAS Coordinator

Where do our students go?

- Most go to university University Placements 2017 110118 RFU.docx
- Many choose a 'gap year'
- Increasing attraction of degree apprenticeships

How do we prepare our students to make decisions:

- Y9 GCSE options: Life Skills sessions on decision-making skills, knowing yourself, how to choose etc
- Y10/11 – individual one-to-one interviews with Careers Team. Help investigate which careers may be suitable/interesting, Princethorpe Careers Fair
- Y11 – interviews continue
- 6th Form – individual interviews, talks from universities and employers, visit to UCAS Conference, Princethorpe Careers Fair.

When you sign in for the first time, you will use a Form Code (parentprincethorpe) which will designate you as a parent.

What can you do...?

- Talk about careers including your own
- Encourage independent thinking skills early
- Help with setting up meaningful work experience placements
- Take pupils to Open Days – possibly start in Y11
- Talk about university, leaving home etc.
